

We Don't Make to Order We Make to Fit

—we make the fitting of our Shoes our special care. Expert salesmen here—no inexperienced boys—but shoe men who thoroughly understand the art of shoe fitting. They try on and fit every shoe that is sold in the house. They are backed up by a line of Shoes that stands alone and unapproachable by any line in the world. No retail store — no wholesale store with such an exhaustive line of sizes as ours.

Important Reduction of the Best Dress Goods.
—AT—PERRY'S.

We are done with most of the profit-selling in the Dress Goods stock—in both Fancy Novelties and the Blacks. We are urged to a loss by the flight of the season. Plenty of service time for you—but this store runs on schedule and other things are demanding our time and our attention. So away go the prices—and up loom the bargains.

You know the importance of such news. You know what an exclusive assortment of the best in Gownings you are to have the privilege of selecting from—at prices that mock the original cost of importation—for they every one have journeyed across the water from the world's most famous weavers.

As usual, small quantities mark the season's end. That speaks their popularity. They do not follow the fashion—but they set it.

These offerings should untie the slimmest purse—

The Fancy Weaves.

It is a goodly variety that is set before you. Most of the "shining lights" of the season are represented. But bear in mind we said small quantities, and be persuaded to promptness.

Remnants.
There are plenty of remnants of all kinds of the new Suitings. Some are only long enough for waists, others will be ample for skirts—some even longer—but whatever they may be, we have taken away from the price.

Remnants.
You will find plenty of the Black Goods in remnants, too. In all lengths from 1 to 60 yds. Serge, Camel's Hairs, Henriettas, Drap D'Almas, Whipcords, Cape Cloths and the novelties. The prices of these have been reduced to almost nothing.

GOLDENBERG'S

GOLDENBERG'S "ANNEXATION SALE" NEWS.

May eighteenth.

The hammering and the sawing
—you hear next door are the builders at work upon the new annex. No dirt yet, no inconvenience—until the party wall comes out, and that won't be long. We don't fear the dirt so much. We shall protect the goods in every way. The question which confronts us is where to put the stuffs adjoining this wall on the three floors. We're letting you take the most of it away—paying you to do it by giving you most of the profits.

The silks shall have to share quarters with the black goods. The amount of black goods will have to be very materially decreased and so will the silk, for the latter department is already congested. Piece by piece it shall go, and when the mail will have struck its first blow what's left of the stuffs which you see on the shelves of the left wall will be safely put out of the way.

See how we've stricken the silk prices:

22-inch brilliantine silk—a very delightful cool and handsome stuff for summer wear in scroll and figured designs—has been over 50c. grade, but will go for 39 cents a yard.

For a day we're going to let you have as much as you want of these pretty and fashionable shirtings—check plaids from across the water. There are large checks and small checks—variety enough to amaze you—have been 50c. a yd. for 49 cents a yard.

If you've noticed you to see that we've had these 22-inch black broadened taffeta silks marked 60c., and that was six cents less than others. All the new effects are shown among them and tomorrow they go for 48 cents a yard.

You've paid 25 cents and more many a time for these large changeable figured lining silks which we shall throw on the counter tomorrow at 19 cents a yard.

My, how the grenadines have sold this spring. In our anxiety to show you more variety than others we bought too many—overloaded ourselves. We might hold off a while before cutting, but the burden wouldn't be any easier to bear, so out they go at a very material reduction.

22-inch black broadened scroll grenadine—for 37 cents a yard.
46-inch (that's double width) silk and genuine mohair mixed black broadened grenadine—for 66 cents a yard.

Plain black (fine mesh) silk grenadine—24 inches wide the former 60c. grade—for 49 cents a yard.
45-inch double width all-silk black satin stripe grenadine—the regular $1.50 grade—for $1.19 a yard.

Suits & skirts marked for quick selling.

Our annual clearance sale of ladies' tailor-made suits and separate skirts starts tomorrow. Really we've never in our life known of such low prices as we have put on them. It just shows how really anxious we are to see them go.

Navies and black cloth suits, with fly-front, jacket made, lined velvet-bound skirts—just formerly were $6-go for $3.98.

Ladies' tailor-made suits of covert, broad-cloth and serge, made in the fashionable "Boyer" style, with "Boyer" and "Blazer" effects—many handsomely headed and lined—just formerly were $10-go for $5.98.

Ladies' stylish man-tailor made suits of fine imported broadcloths, serges, covert and Hopsack suitings—all the newest effects and novelties—many taffeta silk lined, others with other fine silks lined. Many are tastefully braided trimmed. Not any sold under $15 and many were $25-go for $8.85.

A lot of ladies' novelty walking skirts—in all the latest shades—in three-tone mixtures and public weavers—perfect in line, made and velvet bound—not one which broods less than $4 and many were $6.50-go for $2.69.

Lining sale.
A superior quality of silk-finished satens for lining organdie dresses, which sell usually for 25c.—will go on sale for a day at 15 cents a yard.

A fine French black and colored percale, in all the high shades—the regular 12 1/2c. sort goes for a day at 9 1/2 cents a yard.

20-inch black and gray herringbone hair-cloth—the very best quality—brings 35c. about town—goes for a day at 28 cents a yard.

Yard-wide rustle percale—black and color—will go for a day at 6 1/2 cents a yard.

Domestic sale.
Needless to attempt to save money by buying the material and making up these 45 by 36-inch hemstitched pillow cases, which we will put on sale tomorrow at 9 cents each.

For you cannot do it. Every one is hand-torn and ironed, and they're full size and not up, perhaps better than you can do it at home.

Needless also to try to make these 81 by 36-inch "Utility" pillow sheets for 39 cents each.

For a day you may have 3-quarter heavy undyed sheeting for 10 1/2 cents a yard.

For a day you may have 42-inch bleached sheeting for 5 1/2 c. a yard.

Two cases of fine checked, striped and plaid dress gingham—the 10c. sort—go for 5 cents a yard.

in the Boys' dept.
Boys' pretty striped galatin cloth wash pants—fast color—line 25c. sort—for just half price—12 1/2 cents pair.

Boys' white shirt waists, with linen collar and cuffs, also a lot of percale waistcoats—10 cents each.

Balance of that lot of boys' 25c. silk underwear—12 1/2 cents.

WE OFFER NO BARGAINS IN DRUGS.
We don't "cut" prices or sell "at cost." We make a profit on everything we sell. If we didn't we couldn't stay in business. Neither could any one else. A druggist who sells at cost is losing money—or he makes an unfair profit on many things to even up what he loses on one.

That's not O.K. way of doing business.
